

Ronessa Strickland-Roberts, MPH
Executive Director
Inspiration and Change, Inc.
Phone 407.494.3520
change@my-small-part.com

P.O. Box 428
Sanford, FL 32772

Inspiration and Change, Inc.

Press Release

Inspiration and Change, Inc. of Sanford, FL partners with The G.A.P Project! in Orlando, FL. to provide food to needy families in Sanford and Orlando.

The “Hungry All Year” Food Drive Will Help Us Do Our Small Part to Help Meet the Needs of Hungry Families

Sanford, Florida December 30, 2013: Inspiration and Change, Inc. is partnering with The G.A.P Project! to distribute food packages to families in need in Sanford and Orlando. The G.A.P Project! is an initiative developed to widen the margin between families and food insecurity in the Orlando area. Inspiration and Change, Inc. is a not-for-profit organization, established in 2011, in Sanford, FL. The organization seeks to reduce generational disparities such as poverty and other economic and social disparities and provides community education and programming in pursuit of that mission. Inspiration and Change, Inc. will launch a food drive, “Hungry All Year” and will provide The G.A.P Project! with a portion of those proceeds to assist the organization in meet its goals to reduce food insecurity in Orlando’s Northwest corridor. The two organizations will partner on this initiative beginning January 2014.

Inspiration and Change, Inc.’s Executive Director, Ronessa Strickland-Roberts stated, “I am very happy to partner with The G.A.P Project!.” She continues, “Our two organizations can make a difference in the way families recover from the consequences of poverty and other social and economic disadvantages.” “We can’t expect for anyone to have faith that they can overcome their obstacles on an empty stomach; we have to start with that.” “Changes in legislation and families still recovering from the economic downturn make initiatives like this a must.” Ms. Strickland-Roberts also intends for the year-around drive to provide resources to feed families in Sanford, FL. The organization is currently in need of volunteers with professional experience, monetary donations, and other in-kind donations. Contributions to the “Hungry All Year” food drive can be sent to P.O. Box 428, Sanford, FL. 32772 or by visiting www.my-small-part.com. For food pick-ups please call or text 407.494.3520

For Release 12:00pm December 30, 2013, EST